

PRIVACY

What happens to your personal information?

Hurstspeech values the privacy of our clients and takes steps to protect all personal information received.

How do we use and disclose personal information?

- To assess, provide therapy services and contact you around matters concerning the service
- Communicate between treating parties such as your child's GP, Paediatrician, School, etc.
- Assess the level of satisfaction with our service
- Invoicing, billing and account management
- Liaise with agencies such as Medicare, health funds, NDIS, Planned Managed Agencies (when required)

Our responsibility!

- Your personal information is protected from misuse, loss, unauthorized access, modification or inappropriate disclosure
- Data electronically stored is kept within secure network storage and only the appropriate staff have access to this data.
- To keep your data up-to-date, accurate and relevant. Let us know if your details change!

You have the right to access the personal information we have on you.

For a full copy of the Privacy Policy, ask your treating Speech Pathologist.

